

KANDIMA MALDIVES LAUNCHES THE HIP EID ESCAPE PACKAGE FOR MUSLIM TRAVELLERS

Maldives, 22nd April 2018: With Eid al-Fitr holidays just around the corner, you can start planning your Maldives staycation already. Kandima Maldives, recent winner of the Newcomer of the Year 2017 by Maldives Travel Awards, has the perfect combination of family friendly activities, adrenaline packed adventures for groups of friends and romantic experiences for couples. All these are delivered with over three kilometers of landscaped tropical gardens, 272 studios and villas, ten extraordinary restaurants and bars, that offer genuine Maldivian hospitality with a human touch and latest technology – not to mention Kandima’s playful spirit!

Kandiland Kids’ Club

Kandiland is the biggest kid’s club in the Maldives with specially designed program of activities, created to provide exciting events for children between the ages of 2 and 12, available between 10.00-20.00 each day under the supervision of a dedicated team, to provide children the opportunity to explore and learn about the natural wonders of the Maldives, by participating in a selection of hands on tasks alongside their fellow little peers.

Family Accommodation

The spacious Family Sky Studios, are designed for the ease and convenience of family travellers with the opportunity for interconnecting rooms available upon request. Situated along the main beach, each studio has spacious separate verandas for the comfort of all the family members. With flexibility to include additional beds and cribs to comfortably accommodate the sleeping needs of children, all rooms at Kandima Maldives have their own terrace or veranda and have stunning views of the Indian Ocean, lush gardens and endless beaches.
